

South Carolina Association of Prevention Professionals and Advocates

William J. McCord Prevention Advocacy Award

2023 Nomination Form

Purpose: To recognize and honor an advocate for outstanding contributions to the field of prevention. Nominees for this award must display both vision and leadership, while promoting the field of prevention. They must also recognize that the prevention of alcohol, tobacco and other drug abuse in the home, school, church and community is a vital service.

Eligibility: A nominee must be an advocate not working in the field of prevention, but has displayed outstanding advocacy leadership on an issue or issues that are vital to the field. The advocate must be a resident of South Carolina, and their contribution must personify the ideals of Jerry McCord, which are vision, leadership and advocacy. The awarded nominee will receive a 1 year paid SCAPPA Membership.
